Steamer's Pier. Folks on the pier of the Atlantic Transport liner Mesaba, off yesterday for London, were startled by the appearance among them of a white goose and a cat. The goose and cat were unobtrusive and silent. They simply followed their master, Samuel Watson, around while he attended to the shipment in crates of a lot of dogs and roosters. Mr. Watson is in the show business, and the goose and cat are his star performers. They got special quarters
